

K-LOVE radio is a wonderful radio station that I (and my family) listen to daily. I get local news and information as well as national. It would be frustrating and upsetting to me, to lose my radio station because of LPFM taking over more air space.